W. S. Bellows Construction Signs Strategic Partnership with Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) and Associated General Contractors (AGC)

W. S. Bellows Construction Corporation signed an OSHA/AGC Strategic Partnership on Friday, April 24, 2015. AGC Houston and OSHA formalized the cooperative effort to encourage construction companies to voluntarily improve their safety and health performance, providing methods to assist them in their efforts, and recognizing companies with exemplary safety and health programs.

Participation is voluntary to any member company of AGC which meets the qualification requirements of this program. Program requirements include but are not limited to no work-related fatalities or catastrophes in the last year; must have a Total Case Incidence Rate and Days Away, Restricted, Transferred for the previous year that is 10% less than the rate for its NAICS code; no willful or repeat OSHA citations for the past three years; must have a designated full-time employee in charge of the company's safety program; and each company must have a comprehensive written safety and health program that is implemented by the entire company and any participating specialty or trade contractor at each construction site.

Bellows is proud to be recognized as an OSHA/AGC Partner. We will honor this accolade by upholding our stellar safety record and our steadfast commitment to our award-winning safety program.

###

Since 1914, Bellows has been in the business of building. We have constructed many of Houston's notable structures, including the San Jacinto Monument, Wortham Theater Center, the BMC Software Campus and Texas Children's Hospital. More important than the prestige of our portfolio is our relationship with our clients. After a century and counting, Bellows continues to build successful buildings and relationships through a commitment to the highest quality and utmost integrity. Our people, many of whom have spent their entire careers at Bellows, are the backbone of our company and the reason for our success. We are proud of our reputation for doing the right thing and standing behind our work.
